

Missouri Adult Day Services Association

2017 Annual Conference

If you have ever flown on commercial airlines you know the importance of navigating security check points, baggage check, finding your gate, and checking in before boarding the plane. If you miss any of these important connections, your entire trip may be in jeopardy. In today's world of navigating rules, caring for clients, reimbursement, etc., it's critical that you find the right connections to reach your destination. We hope you will join us as we provide you with some timely connections to help you with your journey of caring for others in today's ever-changing industry.

Speaker: Lucas Evans, MA, BCBA, LBA, Central Region Area Behavior Analyst, Department of Mental Health

During this session, using group discussions and activities, you will see how each person can contribute to positive supports through their actions and interactions during the day. You will also learn how to identify problem situations that might require professional consultation.

9:45 to 11:15 AM - Regulatory Update from DHSS, Section for Long-Term Care Regulations

Speaker: Carmen Glover-Slattry, Regulation Unit Manager, Section for Long-Term Care Regulations
The session will focus on the status of the regulation revision process, discussion of major revisions proposed, a review of most commonly cited deficiencies, licensure/re-licensure information and the DHSS ADC Manual.

11:30 AM to 12:45 PM – KEYNOTE SESSION

Connecting Differently: Detectives and Time Travelers

Speakers: Jan Nelson, M.Ed. & V’Ann Giuffre, AGE-u-cate Training Institute, Colleyville, TX

Now that you have been through Dementia LIVE, you have new connections to offer. By experiencing what their world may be like, and looking at the times of their lives, we see and connect with a person. Tell me about Slinkys, Mary Jane candies, hopscotch, plastic army men and foam curlers, and I’ll tell you about how to connect with our elders with dementia in a very different way. We often need detective skills and the willingness to travel back in time. Its common sense, its everyday items and it’s magical. This is what doing things differently looks like. As caregivers, be inspired and excited to go back and try many different approaches.

12:45—1:00 PM—Closing Remarks and Prizes!

“The Power of Connections”

Join us for Networking, Education and FUN!

April 27th & 28th, 2017

Tan-Tar-A Resort, Osage Beach

MoADSA is partnering with the Missouri Alliance for Home Care (MAHC) to bring you a great conference experience. It will be packed with quality education including the “Dementia LIVE” experience with Jan Nelson with AGE-u-cate Training Institute who will also be the keynote speaker on Friday at 11:30 AM. On April 27th we have an Exhibit Hall Day along with State speakers from DHSS, DSDS, and MMAC. We are also excited to have Representative David Wood joining us at 4:00 PM to discuss the state budget, and provide a legislative update. Plan to spend time with your colleagues during the reception Thursday evening and hear from experts on topics important to you and your adult day program. Come early and join us for an Exhibit Hall Reception and “Trivia Night” (free with paid conference registration) on Wednesday April 26th at 7:30 PM.
